

Although the damage from Tropical Storm Ernesto was not enough for a federal presidential declaration, the storm damage did qualify for SBA assistance. In September, the SBA approved a disaster declaration for Duplin and Jones counties to help qualifying businesses and homeowners pay for repairs and other expenses related to damages from Tropical Storm Ernesto.

###